

Married Men and the Draft

In December, married men were among those who were called into service for the first time. The draft was to include those who had been married since September 16, 1940, when the Selective Service Act became a law. Fathers were added to the draft in late 1943.

###

Ledger and Times, November 19, 1942