

MURRAY STATE COLLEGE

MURRAY, KENTUCKY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 26, 1951

Dr. Forrest C. Pogue
10 West Howell Avenue
Alexandria, Virginia

Dear Dr. Pogue:

May I take this opportunity to thank you for joining us, in Louisville, and making such a delightful speech at the Murray breakfast. Every one who heard you enjoyed it thoroughly. I have had many letters about the breakfast, and they are unanimous in their expression of appreciation for your splendid speech. We shall look forward to seeing you when you come back to Kentucky the latter part of May.

I am sure that you have learned by this time that we were not successful in our efforts to get an Air Force ROTC unit. Some of our neighboring colleges, such as Memphis State and Southern Illinois, did get one. The only thing I know to do is to keep plugging at it; and sometime maybe we will be successful; and if one ever does become available - maybe sometime in this century - we will get one.

Again with grateful thanks and kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
